Unfortunately, Blue Valley Telecommunications has no control over how these websites protect your privacy or use information you provide once you leave bluevalley.net. Please visit their individual privacy policies to discover how other websites use your information.

Collection and use of browser information and cookies

Our website uses a third party service, Google Analytics, to collect, monitor and analyze information your browser sends whenever you visit pages on our site in order to improve the Blue Valley Telecommunications website and enhance your user experience. Google Analytics places a cookie on your device to accomplish this. This data may include browser type, your computer's Internet Protocol ("IP") address, the pages of our site that you visit, when you visit, the page you visited right before accessing our site, time spent on Blue Valley Telecommunications pages, and other statistics. Google Analytics does not collect any personal identifiers such as name or address. From time to time, we may use non-personally-identifying information collected to report, in aggregate, trends and usage of the site.

A more detailed explanation of how Google uses data from your browser can be found here: <https://policies.google.com/privacy>

You may opt out of providing browsing information to Google Analytics here: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout/>

Remarketing

Blue Valley Telecommunications may use remarketing services such as Google AdWords and Facebook's retargeting platform to advertise on third-party websites. These ads may be based on the specific pages of the Blue Valley Telecommunications website you visit or whether or not you completed a particular task on our site, for example, submitting a contact form.

Third-party vendors, including Google AdWords and Facebook, use cookies placed on your device to serve relevant and useful ads to you on other websites. These cookies do not in any way identify you or give access to your mobile device or computer.
